An Evening of Gilbert and Sullivan

Huntington Methodist Church
Saturday 12th November 2011

Welcome

Jorvik Gilbert and Sullivan Company are delighted to have been invited to perform here at Huntington Methodist Church, where we have been rehearsing since April this year. Tonight's concert will take you back to the end of the 19th century, as we share a taste of Gilbert and Sullivan's work, from well-known numbers to some lesser-known gems.

The group was formed in 2007 as an inclusive amateur company dedicated to performing the works of William Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan. Since then, we have performed three fully staged productions in the Joseph Rowntree Theatre: Patience in 2009, The Mikado in 2010, and most recently Princess Ida in September this year.

2012 will see a singalong performance of The Mikado in March, where you are encouraged to come along and join in with the choruses, and our main production in September will be H.M.S. Pinafore. For details of these productions, either see our website at www.jorvikgsc.org.uk, or leave your details to join our mailing list.

Thank you for coming tonight; we hope you enjoy the concert!
